

HSC R&D Division: Successful Awards
January - December 2016

Enabling Research Awards
Parenting Northern Ireland 'Odyssey: Parenting Your Teen': A Pilot Non-Randomised Trial
Evaluating the implementation of Minimum Unit Pricing of Alcohol - Harmonising alcohol-related outcomes data across the UK & Ireland
The development and pilot testing of a systematic recording system for deaths by suicide in Northern Ireland to enhance the validity of the NI suicide database
Promoting resilience in children & young people affected by parental substance misuse (PSM): a feasibility study of the Pharos group work programme.
The impact of a tailored dietary intervention coupled with oral rehabilitation on the nutritional status of older patients.
The Jack Trial: An Intervention refinement to the parental component.
Rapid tests for fungal infection 2.
Establishing a clinical phenotype for cachexia in chronic kidney disease.
Developing E-health Services (DES): The feasibility and accountability of group based video-conferencing for adults with depression.
Knowledge Exchange Awards
Using information to prepare cancer caregivers to cope: translating evidence to practice iMPAKT: Implementing and Measuring Person-centredness using an APP for Knowledge Transfer
Making Insulin Treatment safer in Northern Irish Hospitals
Opportunity-Led Commissioned Research Awards
Pulmonary epithelial barrier and immunological junctions at birth and in early life – key determinants of development of asthma?
TRAC-24 (Effect of the addition of twenty-four hours of oral tranexamic acid post-operatively to a single intra-operative intravenous dose of tranexamic acid on calculated blood loss following primary hip and knee arthroplasty)
Steps Towards Alcohol Misuse Prevention Program (STAMPP) in Northern Ireland
TrueNTH UK – Maximising Sexual Wellbeing Project
Doctoral Fellowship Awards
The development and testing of a universal trans-disciplinary programme to enhance working memory which will target attention and language skills in 4-5 year old children: A clustered randomised feasibility trial

Development and testing of a supportive intervention to meet the needs of older male carers looking after a spouse/partner with a long term condition: a feasibility study
Gender Dysphoria: prevalence, experiences and pathways for people with Autism
The development of early warning diagnostic and treatment response markers of Non-Uterine Pelvic High Grade Serous Carcinomas (HGSCs)
US-Ireland R&D Partnership Programme Awards
COMP-Ang1: Vascular Normalization and Neuroprotection for Diabetic Retinopathy
Integrative genomic, epigenetic and functional studies in diabetic kidney disease
Translational Analyses of Ingestive Behaviour after Gastric Bypass
GPARTS Awards
The impact of Precision Teaching on right left discrimination ability
A study to assess preparedness of GP Trainees to deliver health promotion advice for physical activity
Cochrane Fellowship Awards
Psychological interventions for depression in adults bereaved through life-limiting conditions.
Educational interventions to improve attainment for Children in Care.
Interventions to support female BRCA carriers who undergo risk-reducing surgery.
Post-operative exercise interventions on the physical and mental health of people with colorectal cancer receiving adjuvant therapy.
NCI Summer Cancer Prevention Courses
4 places on these courses were allocated to Northern Ireland applicants
Special Initiatives
Establishment of GMP Accredited Cell Therapy Facility in Belfast Health & Social Care Trust and Queen's University Belfast.